OVERALL ASSESSMENT

CURRENT STANDINGS

Exploration

It is very apparent that you are very passionate in Film, which were shown by your activities' exploration in the field. Note that you have ONLY been recently gaining interest in Business and have NOT really explore this subject. In terms of your explorations in Film, you are on the right track, BUT you're still very lacking in your Business explorations.

Personal Brand

Based on your current profile, your personal brand is "A creative student who could manage her own Film production house and is interested in Business Management." As you can see, your personal brand is leaning towards Film, while your brand in Business is still too generic. Thus, immediately immersing yourself and gaining Business-related experience will enable you to fill in the blank in your personal brand.

Academic Performance

It is good to see that you have significantly improve your academics from B- to A this academic year.

AREAS OF IMPROVEMENT

Passion/Interest Exploration

It's good to see that you have been exploring your passion in Film. However, since you are considering to major in Business, you are still lacking on the Business front. As such, you should immediately start thinking of exploring the different Business fields and immerse yourself by doing hands-on work/activities (i.e. personal projects, research work, competitions, organization/club participations, etc.) Moreover, you also need to gain insights into the career paths of different Business branches to help you narrow down which major in Business that you want to pursue.

Personal Branding

Your personal brand in Business is still a blank canvas. Therefore, you need to both soul-search into the issue that you care about, develop specific skillsets in a branch of Business that you have narrowed down, and showcase your experience through your accomplishments in the field.

Summary:

You know that your passion is in Film, but you are also interested in Business. Your profile in Film is on the right track, while that of Business is not. Thus, you need to explore, immerse, and gain more experience in Business, and perhaps connect it to your passion in Film in order to develop a unique personal brand.

HOW TO POSITION YOU IN A UNIQUE MANNER FOR UNIVERSITY APPLICATION

“Personal Brand is one or two sentences that student would like the admissions committee to remember about.”

Your current personal brand is ONLY half done. In more detail, your personal brand in your passion for Film is already quite established; however, your brand in Business is still blank. Therefore, you will need to focus on building your profile on the Business front by gaining more exposure in the field and developing your Business skillsets.

Therefore, your main focus within the next year is to gain exposures on the potential career paths in the different branches of Business; work on personal projects related to these fields; and participate in activities that are directly relevant to your personal and academic interests to develop your personal brand.

Note:

You need a more in-depth explorations into the Business and gain more exposure in the field to complete your personal brand.
